Frommer's Review

High above the Delaware River, in the southwesternmost extreme of the Catskills, this small, personal inn is all about serenity and the stupendous, unending views, which make guests feel like they're sleeping in the clouds. Situated on a bluff 300 feet above the river and on 60 acres of private woods, this is truly a place to escape. Take hikes, spot bald eagles, and enjoy some downtime. Although it may seem that you're miles from anywhere, you're just a short drive from the new museum and concert pavilion at Bethel Woods. Gourmet country breakfasts can be enjoyed on the deck (one of several) overlooking the river. If it's views you're after, settle into the turret of the Sunrise Room. Rooms are nicely appointed, but not fussy, and the two hosts are gracious and helpful.
